TODAY'S STUDY IS ON FINDING YOUR WHY

Without a solid reason for WHY you are going after a dream or a goal, it would be easy to give up and allow the dream to die. Situations can arise that work against you achieving your dream. This includes well meaning people or events even after you decide to take action and go for your dream,

In our story, after Mark finally agreed to move forward with adopting Favor and it appeared like everything could start progressing, we had a door shut with our first call to the adoption agency. Our hopes were crushed!

Have you ever started taking steps toward a dream only to have a door shut in your face the first time you try?
(i.e. First person you speak to is negative.)_____
What was your response?_____
Did you give up? If so why?_____

It's time to discover your WHY.
How do you do that?
Ask yourself a few questions:

1, Do you believe this is a God-given dream?_____
2. Who benefits from your dream? (list everyone you can think of)_____
_____
3. Is this something you would enjoy doing for a long period of time? (does it spark joy?)_____
4. If things become hard, will you have the tenacity to keep pressing forward despite the cost?_____
5. When you come to the end of your days on earth, would you regret not going fearlessly after this dream?
6. Complete this sentence. I'm pursuing this dream because_____
_____.

If you answered yes to these questions and were able to list others beside yourself in Question #2, and can easily answer Question #6, you've discovered your WHY!

ACTION:

Now that you know your WHY, you have just armed yourself with the weapon that will help you in your ability to be an OVERCOMER and achieve your dream.

When Missy hung up the phone after having the door shut on her to proceed with the adoption, she felt like she was "hanging over the Grand Canyon by a thread." She immediately called Mark. They prayed together and decided the next best step was to get help from the orphanage director.

If someone or something tries to stop your dream, what will your next step be?_____

_____

Some of you may be stalled out as a result of a challenge. Others may have set it down completely because you're afraid.

Write at least THREE ACTIONS you can take to keep moving toward your dream. (Remember your WHY.)

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Promises to hold onto:

II Chronicles 15:7 - Why should you take courage?_____

_____

John 14:27 - What are the two thing this verse tells us not to do?_____

_____

Instead, what are you instructed to do?_____
